It is possible to make the payment for the trip, with for example, VISA card which can give you an insurance against cancellation. You often have to demonstrate medical and / or parentage certificate. Learn more here for example: <http://www.reseforsakring.nu/visa-reseforsakring.html>

Price changes

The price may be changed only because of cost increases due to:

1. Changes in transport costs
2. Changes of taxes, duties or charges for services included in the trip or
3. Changes in exchange rates which affect the costs of the trip.

The price may not be increased during the last 20 days before the agreed departure date.

Shortcomings

If after departure, a substantial part of the services contracted for can not be provided, the organizer will arrange suitable alternative arrangements at no extra cost.

For other errors, such as that accommodation does not deliver what was promised, the passenger is entitled to a price reduction and compensation, unless the fault is due to the traveler. The traveler is not entitled to compensation if the organizer can prove that the fault is due to an impediment beyond the organiser's control, that he could not reasonably have anticipated when the contract was made, and whose consequences he could not reasonably could have anticipated when the contract was concluded.
